

Survey of Voters in Puerto Rico & U.S. Diaspora
March 25 – 30, 2024

IZQ Strategies

Methodology

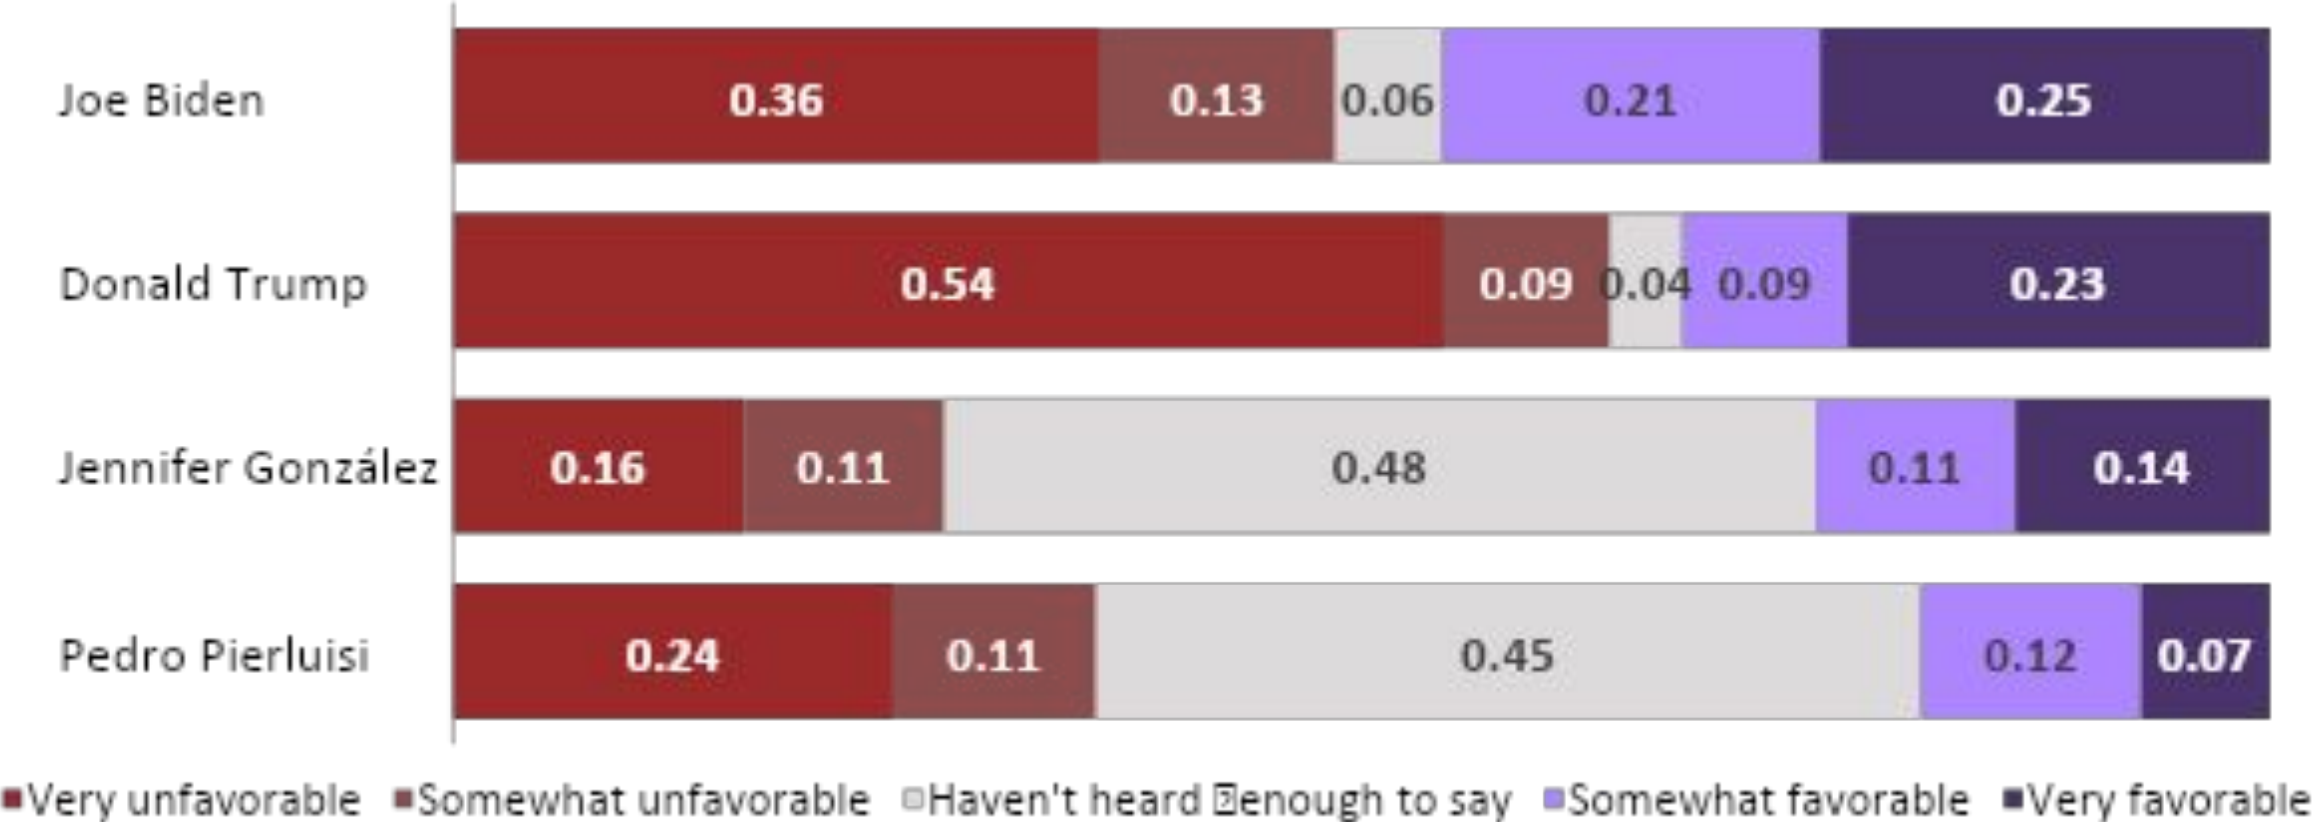

From March 25 to 30, 2024, IZQ Strategies conducted a survey of likely voters registered in Puerto Rico, and Puerto Rican likely voters registered in the U.S. (diaspora voters) using SMS responses.

The Puerto Rican diaspora voters sample was weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education and voting history. The margin of error is ± 4 percentage points and 675 responses were collected.

Responses from voters in Puerto Rico were weighted to be representative of likely voters by age, gender, education and partisanship. The margin of error is ± 6 percentage points and 362 responses were collected.

All respondents were given the option to take the survey in Spanish, English or a combination of both.

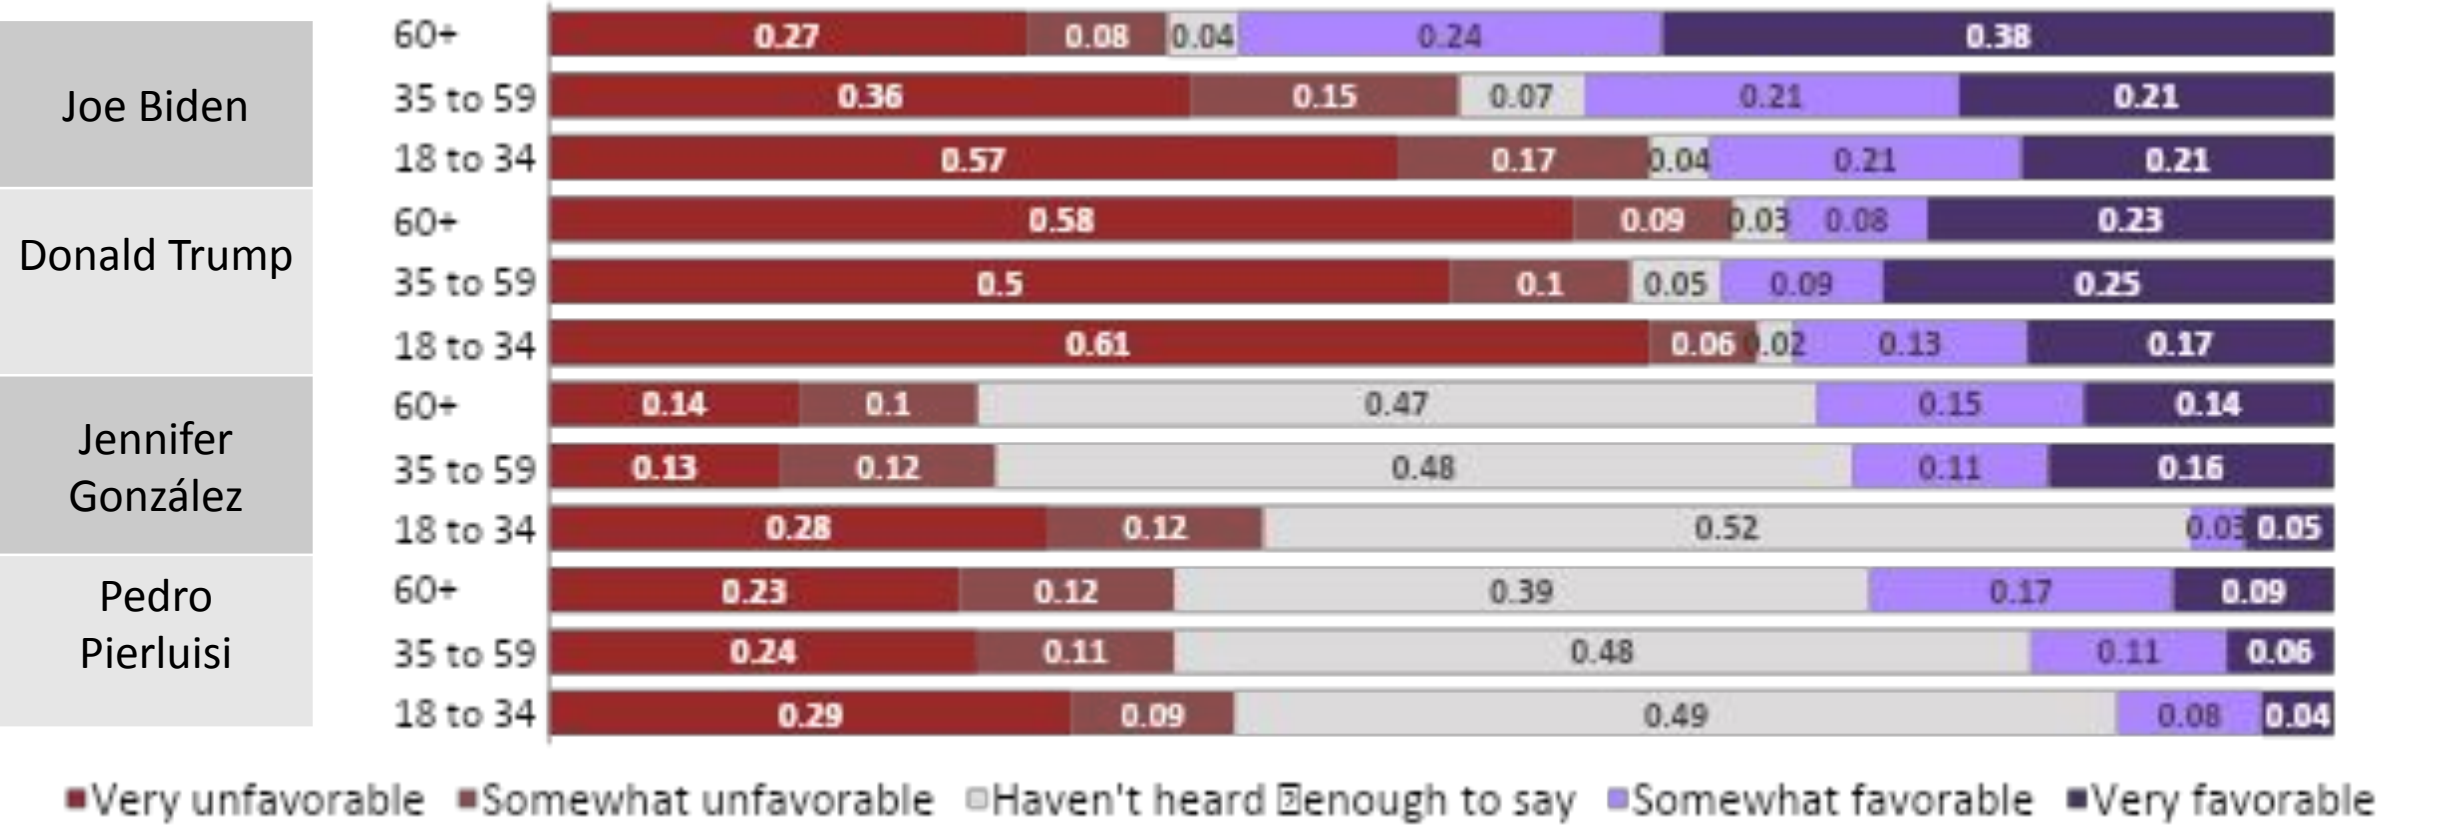

Among voters in the diaspora, 46 percent hold a favorable opinion of Joe Biden, while 49 percent hold an unfavorable view of him. A larger percentage, 63 percent, currently hold an unfavorable view of Donald Trump.

Question: Do you have a favorable or unfavorable opinion of the following public figures?

FAVORABILITY
AMONG
DIASPORA

Joe Biden’s high unfavorable rating among diaspora voters is being driven by younger voters. Among those between the ages of 18 to 34, 74 percent view Biden unfavorably. Donald Trump is viewed unfavorably similarly among all age groups.

Question: Do you have a favorable or unfavorable opinion of the following public figures?

FAVORABILITY
AMONG
DIASPORA

Among voters in Puerto Rico, both Jennifer González (PNP/GOP) and Joe Biden (DEM) are viewed favorably. In contrast, 63 percent view the current governor, Pedro Pierluisi (PNP/DEM), unfavorably.

Question: Do you have a favorable or unfavorable opinion of the following public figures?

FAVORABILITY
AMONG PR
VOTERS

Surprisingly, Donald Trump is viewed more favorably among younger voters in Puerto Rico than Joe Biden is.

Very unfavorable Somewhat unfavorable Haven't heard enough to say Somewhat favorable Very favorable Question: Do you have a favorable or unfavorable opinion of the following public figures?

FAVORABILITY
AMONG PR
VOTERS

Among Puerto Rican diaspora voters, Biden holds a narrow lead over Trump of approximately 11 points. In a hypothetical presidential vote in Puerto Rico, Biden receives a similar level of support.

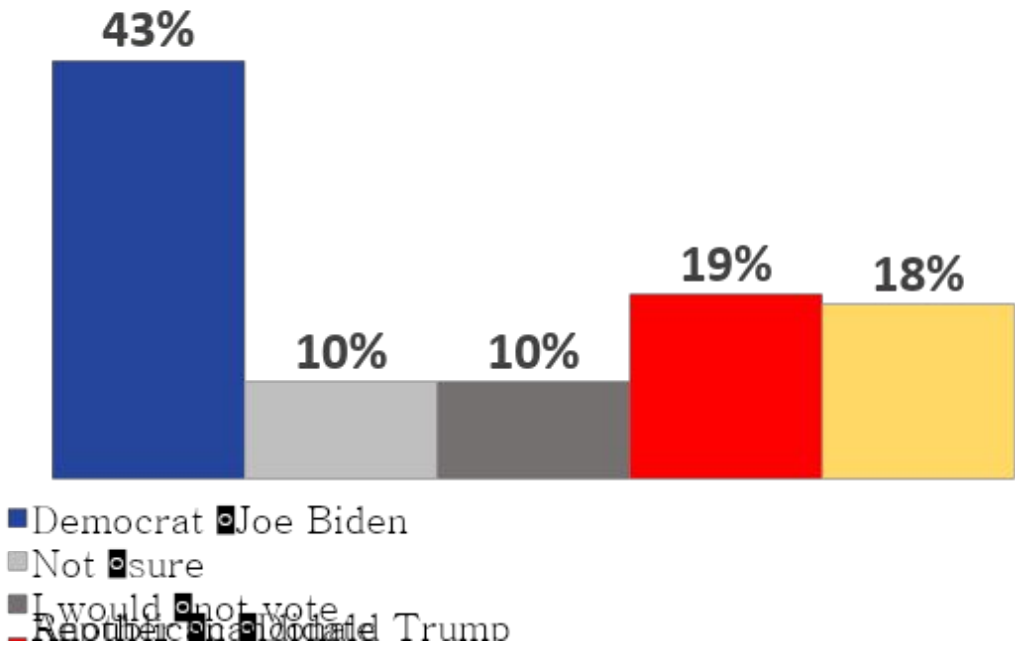

Diaspora Voters

Question: If the 2024 November election for President of the United States were being held tomorrow, and these were the candidates, who would you vote for?

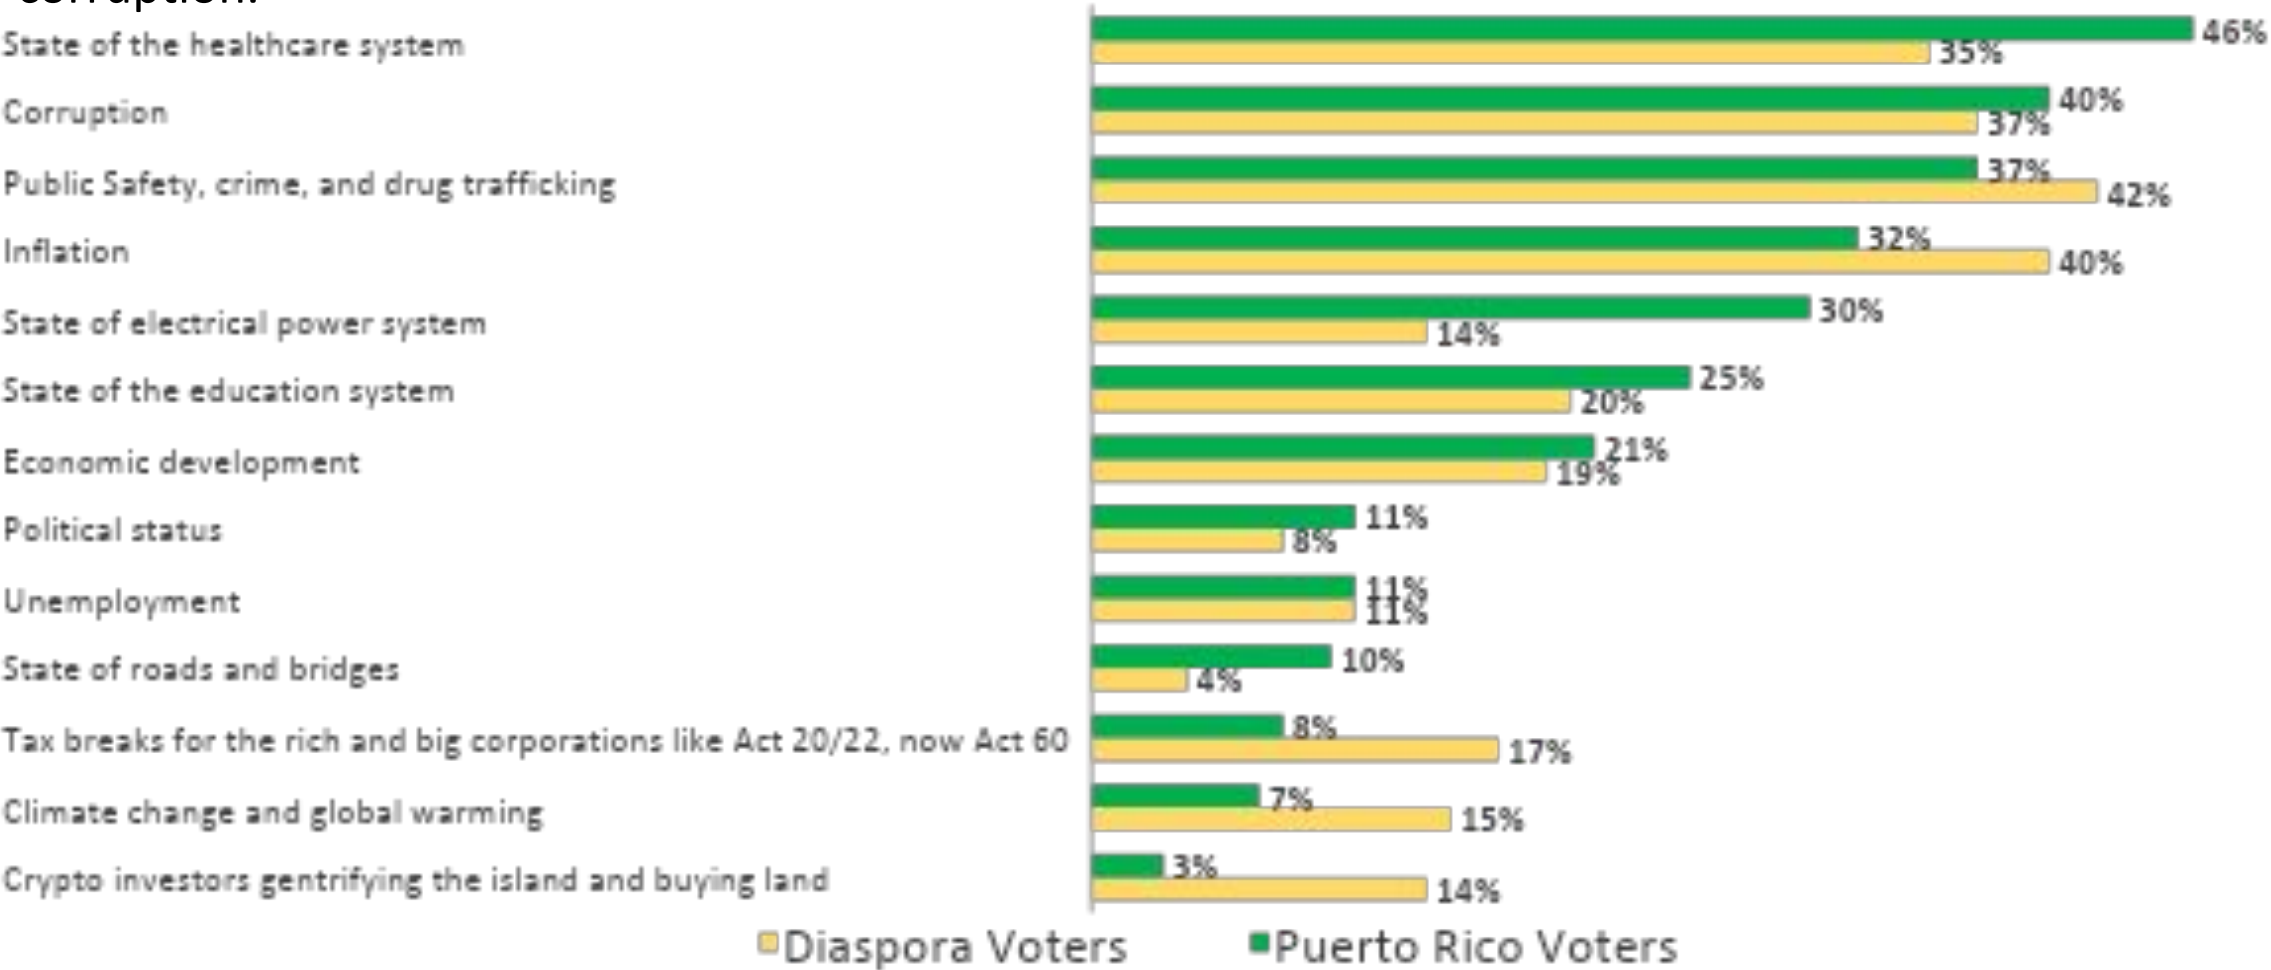

Puerto Rico Voters

Question: Currently, residents of the United States territories cannot vote for the President of the United States. If you could vote for the President, which of the following candidates would you vote for?

PRESIDENTIAL VOTE

When prompted to choose their top three issues, Puerto Rico voters are most worried about healthcare, corruption and public safety, while voters in the diaspora are most worried about public safety, inflation and corruption.

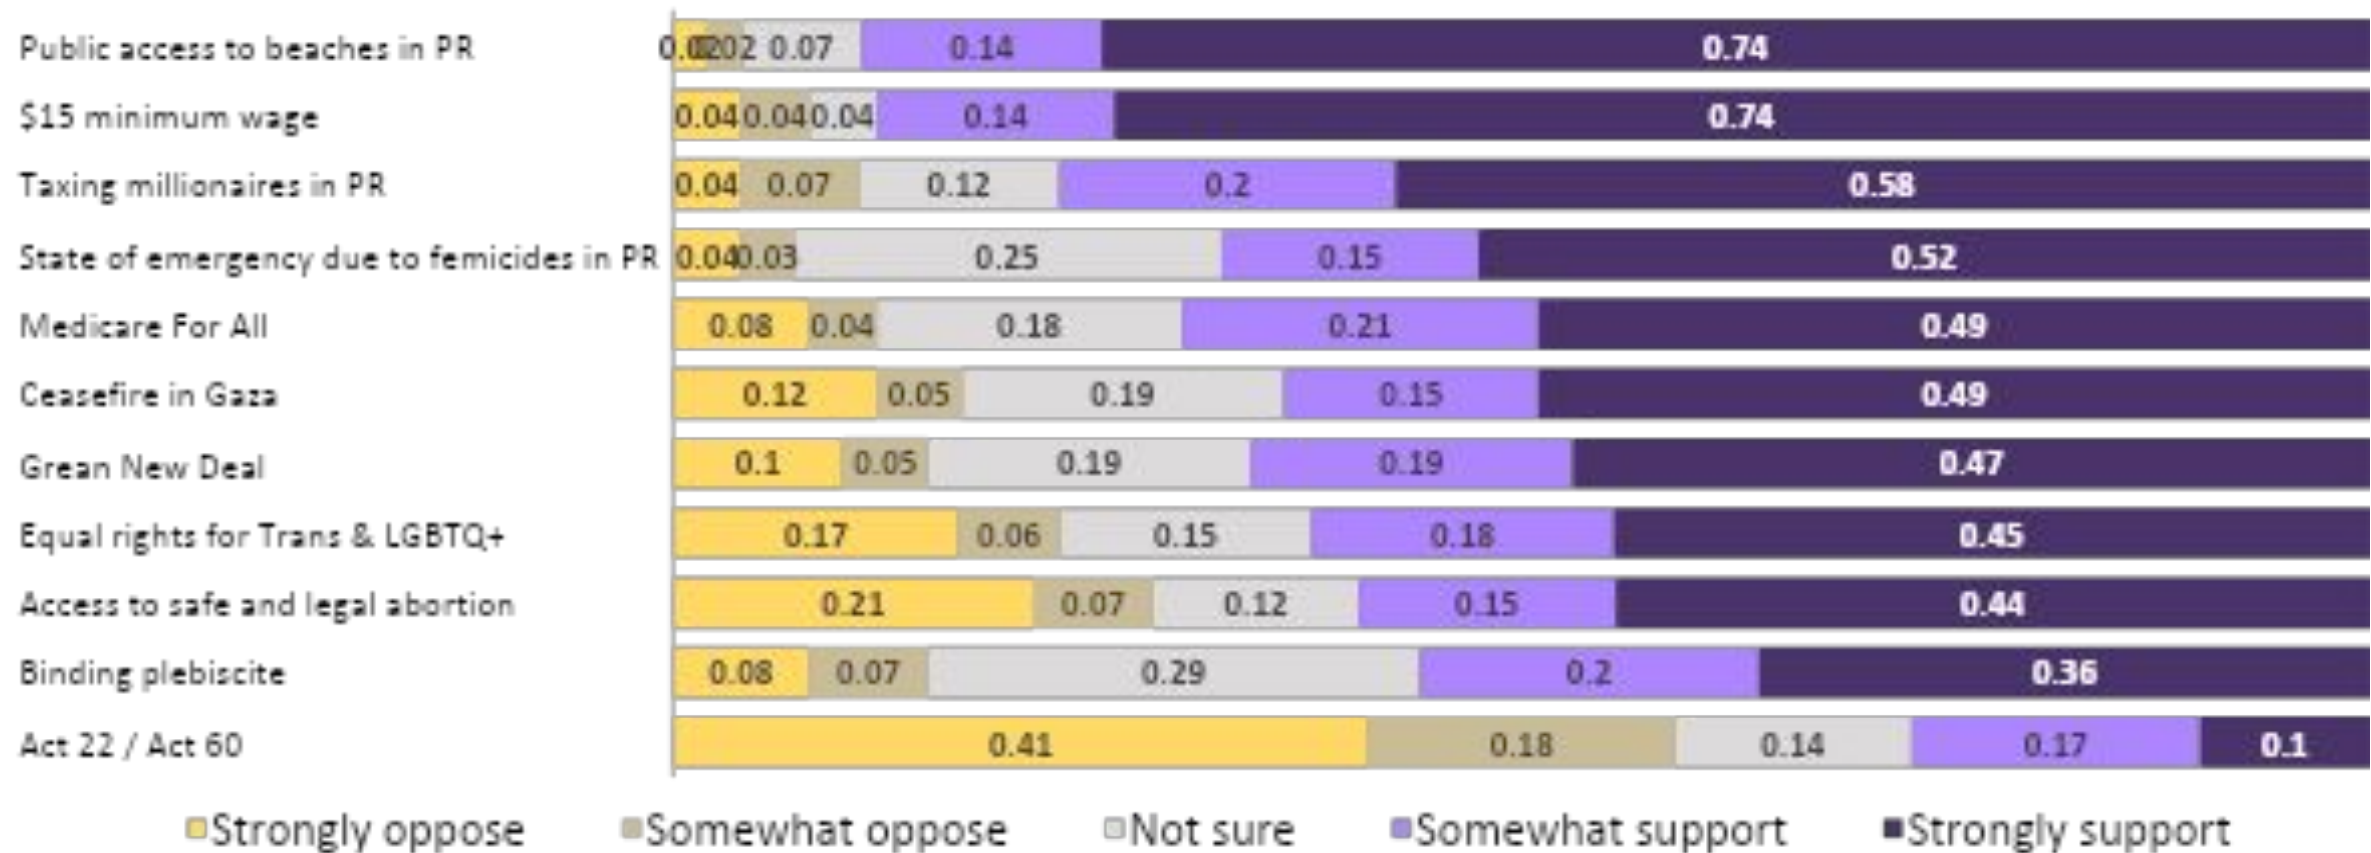

Question: From this list choose the three issues that worry you the most:

TOP ISSUES

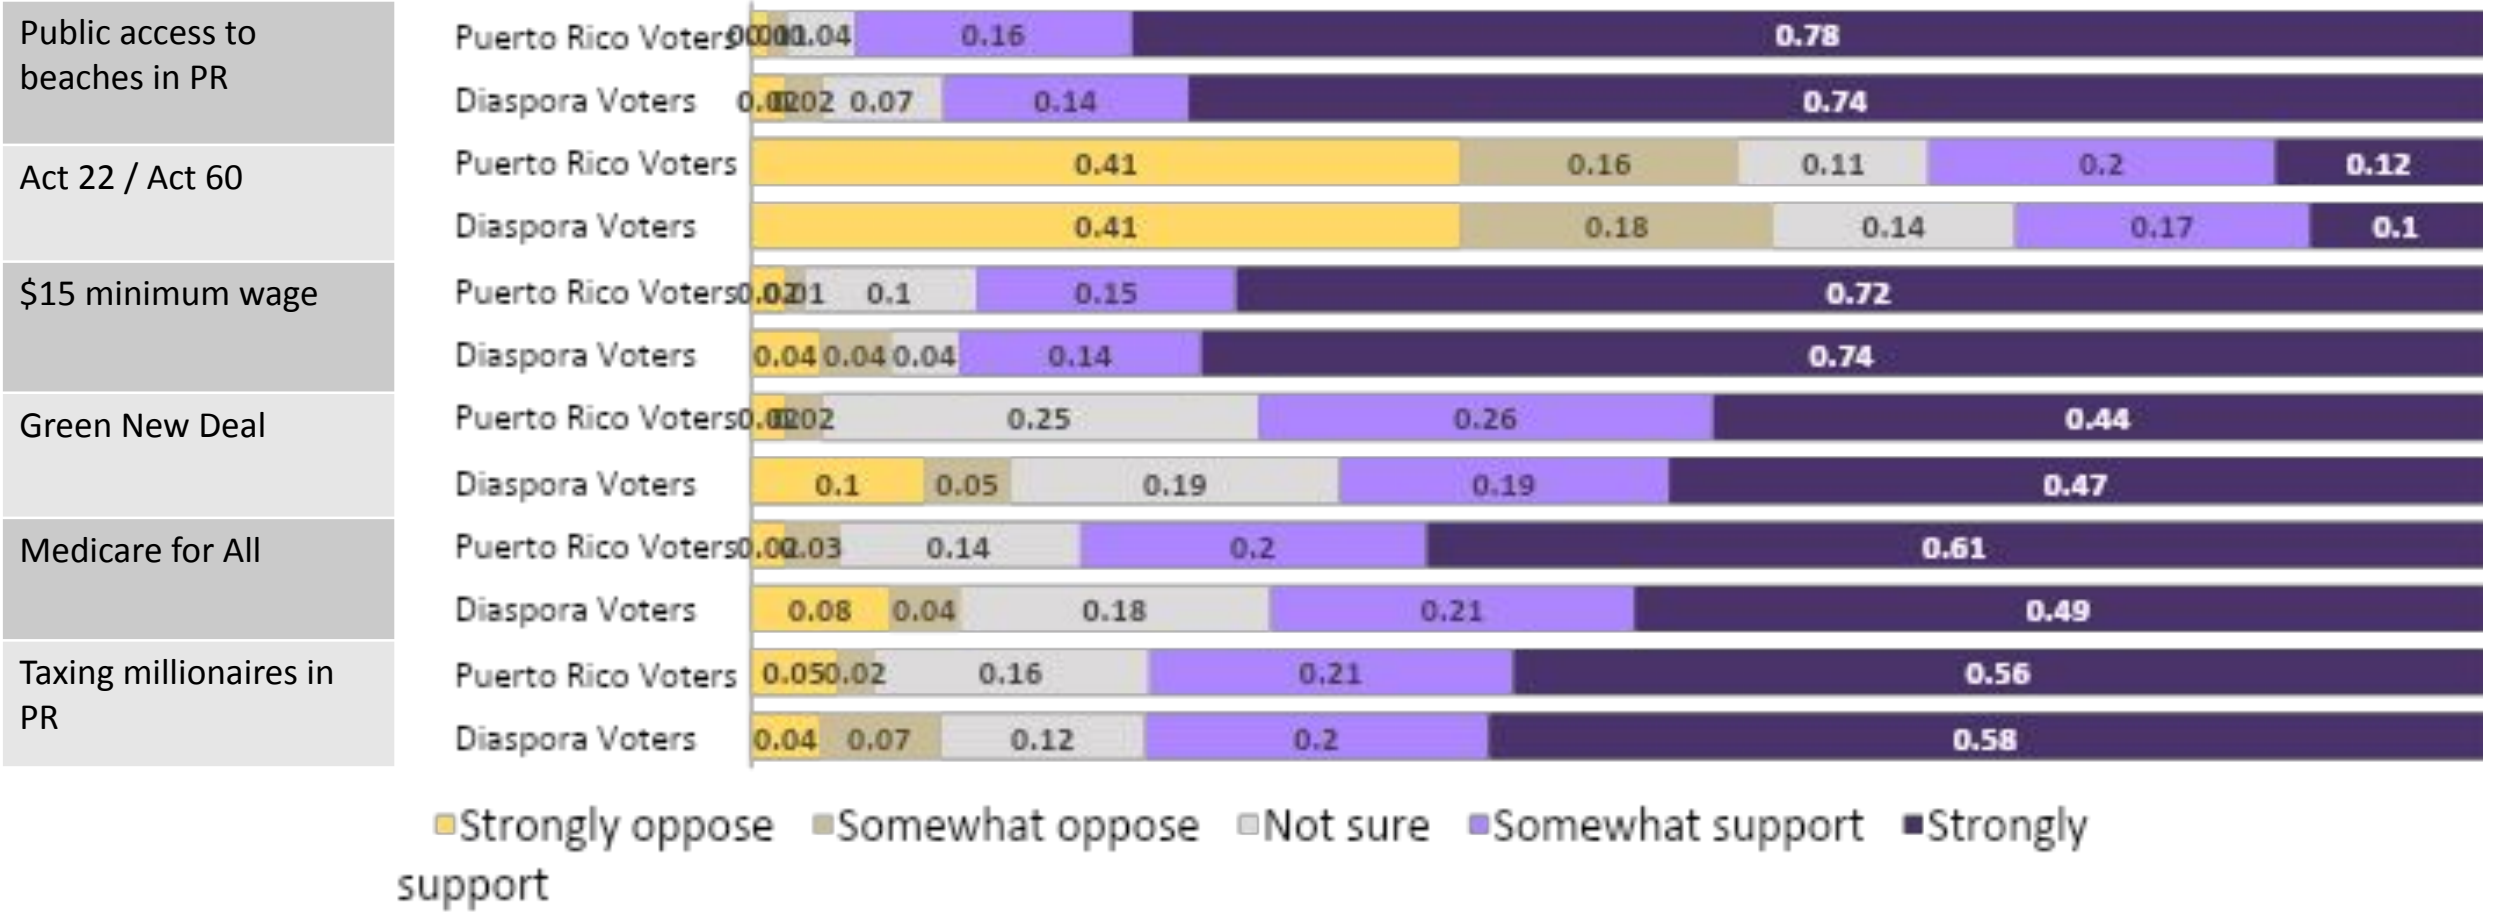

In Puerto Rico, voters support a wide range of progressive issues, and the data suggests that support for access to abortion has grown.

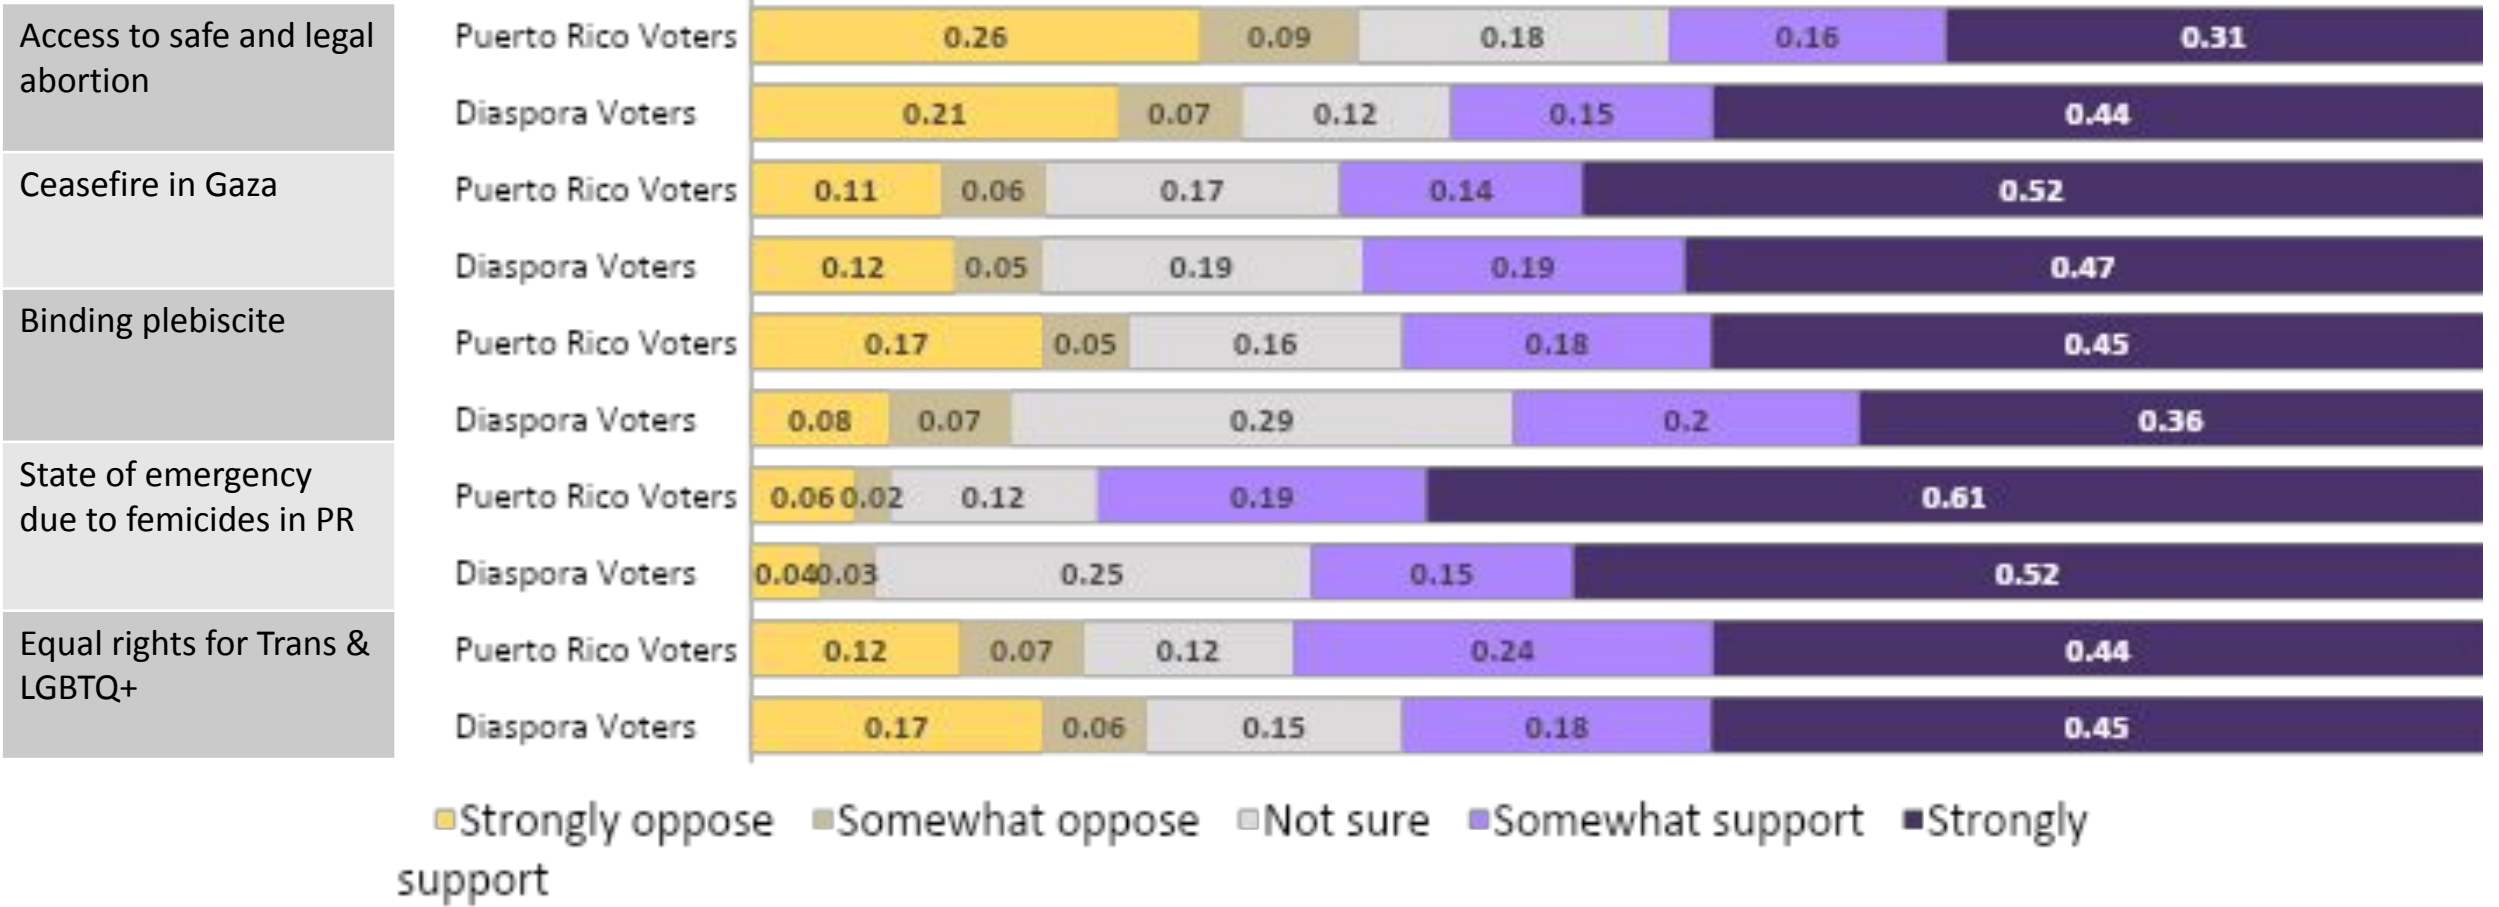

Among voters in the diaspora, there are similar levels of support as in Puerto Rico for most issues, with a notably larger level of support for abortion access.

In terms of economic issues, there is strong opposition to tax breaks for the wealthy, and strong support for increasing taxes on millionaires to help stabilize Puerto Rico’s finances. Medicare for All is even more popular in Puerto Rico than in the U.S.

Both voters in Puerto Rico and the diaspora want to see Joe Biden push to reduce violence in Gaza. Voters in Puerto Rico strongly support the local government taking significant action to address femicides.

ISSUE SUPPORT

Gustavo Sánchez

gustavo@izqstrategies.com